

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
Karnataka Regional Branch
Bengaluru

Report of Event

The Karnataka Regional Branch of the IIPA, in association with KLE Law College, Bengaluru organized a workshop on the theme, Cyber Security, Public Policy and Law on 7th May 2024. The Inaugural Address was delivered by Dr. M.A. Saleem, IPS, Director-General of Police, CID, Special Units and Economic Offences, Karnataka. The Chief Guest was Mr. T.M. Vijay Bhaskar, IAS (Retd.), former Chief Secretary of Karnataka and Chairman of IIPA-KRB. Prof. J.M. Mallikarjunaiah, Principal of KLE Law College presided over the inauguration. The three Resource Persons at the workshop were:

1. Mr. Vamsi Krishna, IPS, Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Economic Offences, Karnataka. He enlightened the audience on the topic, “Emerging Cyber Crime Threat Landscape in India and the Law”;
2. Mr. K. Venkatesh Murthy, Senior Director, Data Security Council of India. He spoke on “Cyber Security and Digital Forensics in the Age of Artificial Intelligence”.
3. Dr. Shailaja Shastri, Director, Research, YourDOST, Bengaluru. She spoke on “Cyber Security and Psychology”.

The workshop provided a comprehensive exploration of contemporary issues in the field. With engaging sessions led by eminent speakers and interactive discussions, participants gained valuable insights into the challenges and solutions within the realm of cyber security. The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. D Jeevan Kumar, Secretary, IIPA, Karnataka Regional Branch.

Seen in the photo below, at Left, are (from L to R) Prof. J.M. Mallikarjunaiah, Dr. M.A. Saleem, IPS, Mr. T.M. Vijay Bhaskar, IAS (Retd.) and Mr. K. Venkatesh Murthy. Photo on the Right shows a section of the audience.

